Documents cited in the International Search Report:

D1: EP0723247

D2: US5903893

D3: US5652881

The documents cited in the International Search Report represent the prior art. The claimed invention stated in claims 1-9 is not considered to be anticipated by these documents. None of the documents or any relevant combination of them reveal a method for handling a database as described by these claims. Where an objects propagation in all multidimensional intervals is determined, the number of objects in the same interval is determined and compared with a threshold value and if that value is exceeded the interval is divided in at least two smaller intervals.

According to the arguments stated above, the invention claimed in claims 1-9 is novel, considered to involve an inventive step and have industrial applicability.
